1. The theoretical statement requested by [] thru [] from CANDIDA on the problems of setting up a stay-behind radionet has not yet been written. CANDIDA plans to write it with the assistance of his former Leibniz Ost III radio expert.
2. Although the general subject headings in [] memo seem adequate to [] as indications of what we are interested in, CANDIDA desires a more detailed list of questions incorporated into a schematic set-up for the theoretical statement.
3. Since [] has not enough technical background he is bucking this problem to Commo Karl for action.

4. On Tuesday evening 7 June, [] has agreed to phone CANDIDA and confirm the tentative meeting date of 11 June. The radio expert will also be present at this meeting.

5. Can a specific and detailed list of questions from Comm. Karl be in Munich in time for [] to make this appointment? The answer to this question will be requested by phone to [] by [] during working hours on Tues. 7 June

6. Since CANDIDA's radio expert has several of his ^{former} subordinates kicking around Germany, it might be a good idea to phrase the questions not only to bring out the answerer's wartime experiences but also to find out if the radio
